

LENTEN REFLECTION BOOKS

Now available!

Mercy College Campus Ministry is offering Liguori Publication's Daybreaks: Daily Reflections booklet to Mercy College students, faculty, and staff for prayer and reflection during the Lenten and Easter season.

More about this year's booklet:

Jesus is alive and among us, and through these daily reflections Father Byron Miller, CSSR, shows us where we can find Him in ourselves and others. Join the journey from the revelry of Mardi Gras in New Orleans and long walks in fresh air, to Calvary and the road to Emmaus. From Ash Wednesday through the Easter Octave, Father Byron provides an opportunity for personal reflection, prayer, and meditation on the daily Lectionary readings from Masses throughout this holy season. In a tone that is both light and insightful, Daybreaks opens our understanding of repentance, sacrifice and support of others.

Fr. Byron Miller, CSSR, is President and Publisher of Liguori Publications, and the former Director of the National Shrine of Blessed Francis Seelos and Vice Postulator of the Seelos Canonization Cause. He was ordained a Redemptorist priest in 1990. He served on the Liguori Publications Board (2006-08) and on the Extraordinary Council of the Denver Province of Redemptorists (2005-07).

Please complete a request form by Feb. 10 and a booklet will be mailed at no cost to you in early February.

Request Form: <https://bit.ly/3ppfs9w>

Questions? Contact Annie Devine
Director of Campus Ministry & Service Learning
annie.devine@mercycollege.edu

